WOLFMAN by John Cospers

The setting is a nice living room. JOYCE leads DEB in to sit down. They both have drinks.

DEB: Thanks for finally inviting me over. You have a lovely home.

JOYCE: Thanks, Deb.

DEB: It's really nice. I love the rose bushes outside.

JOYCE: Thanks. It's a lot of work, but hey, I have plenty of time to give them. It's just me and Sneakers here.

DEB: Sneakers?

SNEAKERS howls off stage.

Aww, you have a dog. What breed is he?

JOYCE: Oh, Sneakers isn't a dog.

DEB: I understand. When Scruffy was alive, he was much more than a dog to me too.

JOYCE: No, really, he's not a dog. He's a wolfman.

DEB does a spit-take.

DEB: A wolfman, huh?

JOYCE: Yeah. My furry, fabulous little friend. Would you like to meet him?

Before DEB can say no, JOYCE whistles.

Sneakers!

A door opens loudly, and SNEAKERS appears. He runs on stage, into the living room, and starts sniffing DEB, who curls up in a fetal position on the couch to protect herself.

DEB: Joyce... you have a WOLFMAN???

JOYCE: Isn't he great? Sneakers, get over here.

SNEAKERS turns, putting his rear - that smells REALLY bad - in DEB's face as he sniffs and licks JOYCE's face. She pets him on the head.

Yeah, who's a good baby? Who's my good baby?

DEB: Wow. A wolfman. My mom says my Uncle Bob had a wolfman once.

JOYCE: Aren't they the greatest?
